by Mrs. Elijah Rolla Fox, nee Eliza Farwell, a sister of Solomon Farwell, and a daughter of Sabina Burlingame, to her nephew John Dennis Farwell of Lorraine, N.Y. the father of Mr. Frederick Henry Farwell, as follows:

"My dear Nephew:

Nov. 19, 1887.

My mother, Sabina Burlingame was born Dec. 29th in Wethersfield, Vt. and died in Alexandria, Jefferson Co. Feb. 5, 1856, aged 75 years. I do not know the age, birth or death of my grandfather Burlingame. Grandmother's maiden name was Eunice Crandall. I do not know the number of their children. I do not know the number. I know one of mother's brothers lived in Farmeraville, Cattaraugus Co. His name was Ira Burlingame. He was a Baptist Minister and had one son named Leroy.

Isreal Burlingame was Selectman 1778-1779-1780 and Represented Weathersfield Windsor Co. Vt. at the General Court from 1778 to 1781.

He served in the Revolution in the Upper Regiment Cumberland Co. Vt., as Lieut. in Roll 825, Cumberland Committee of Safety; Town Clerk 1777. Also served 10 days, 2 horses, 120 miles transporting flour from Conn. river to Battenskill, under Capt. Abel Marsh for Northern Army by order of Joe Bailey.

Vt. by Hamilton Child p. 244; Thompson's Hist. of Eastern Vt. Vol. I p. 25; Vol. II p. 227; N.E. Register Vol. XV p. 336.)

Isreal Burlingame appears in 1790 Census of Vermont with name spelled Burlingham.

In 1774 Isreal Burlingame was chosen an officer of the Town Meeting. In 1775 he was made a member of the Committee of Safety, and of the Committee of Thirteen at Westminster. This year also, he signed the Association test and his name is followed by the designation of First Lieut. In 1776 and again in 1780 roads were accepted by his home. It is evident that the home was in the northwest part of the town, not far from Ascutneyville. In 1780 it was voted that Magazines of those for the west side of the town be kept at the house of Isreal Burlingame. In the same year he was chosen representative. The Vermont Officers gave William Upham as the first representative 1778-79, and Isreal Burlingame second in 1780.

In 1793 the tax list of Weathersfield, Vt. shows Isreal had one poll, 2 oxen, 2 cows, 1 calf, 30 cleared acres. John his son had one poll, 2 oxen, one cow, a calf, 16 cleared acres. In 1810 John was taxed on one poll, 2 oxen, five cows, one horse, one house and 15 cleared acres. Isreal did not appear because he was living with Ebenezer Hatch (See Deed under Isreal) made 1808 by John for Isreal's care. In 1813 a record of land ownership gives John 100 acres in Section 2, lots 56-57, and fifty acres on Ascutney Mountain.

Near Isreal's homestead is a brook called Dodge Brook.

Citizens of Weathersfield, Vt. who declared for Liberty and Independence in the year 1775 viz: Isreal Burlingame (the first Lieut. of the First Militia Co. in the town). Ref: N.E. Register Vol. XV p. 336.

The earliest mention of Isreal Burlingame found was May 17, 1774, when he was chosen Town Clerk. His own spelling of the name was "Burlingame." He was chosen on committee of safety June 15, 1775, and also Lieut. of the Militia Co. He became Captain before Dec. 18, 1782 and was proprietor Clerk in 1793. (Ref: Weathersfield, Vt. Records)

Letter written to Miss Abbott who assisted in making the Farwell Genealogy, written by Victor W.Salmond, Town Clerk of Weathersfield.(Perkinsville,Vt. Jan.1, 1927).

"During the Revolution, Isreal Burlingame was a member of the Town Committee of Safety, and was a Lieut. of the first Military Co. He was one of the 24 men registered in Weathersfield on Dec.21, 1775. In 1771, N.Y. regarded Weathersfield as under its jurisdiction and as a part of Cumberland Co. It then took the first census and found a population of 20 in four families."

In the records of early town meetings, I find Isreal Burlingame's name frequently. He having served as town clerk, lister etc.

I am quite sure that he lived on the Ascutneyville side of the town, probably somewhere along the Conn. river.

Deeds at Keene, N.H. is there any mention of either Isreal or John.

The following appears in the Cattaraugus Co. History by Ellis p. 250:

Richertson Burlingame came into this region from Oxford, Chenango Co. N.Y. as a surveyor in the employ of the Holland Land Company. He traversed the hills and valleys of Cattaraugus and through the deep-tangled forests by the blaze upon trees made in the original township surveys. He assisted in the subdivision of the town into lots, surveyed and mapped the village plot of Ellicottville and made the map which was adopted by authority upon the incorporation, of the village in 1837. After he had finished the greater portion of his survey, he located on Lot No. 62 an irregular tract of land lying on Great Valley Creek, and beyond the regular tier of lots, containing about 300 acres. His first dwelling was a log structure erected near the banks of the Creek. Upon this farm he passed the remainder of his life, and was buried within the ground which he had cleared and cultivated. These premises are now owned by Harvey Litchfield.

In the year 1817 Richertson Burlingame came into town and built houses (p.249-250). The first who took contracts of land in Ellicottville were Richertson Burlingame (p.570). Richertson Burlingame of Ellicottville surveyed and laid out the first highways in the town Dec.3,1823. (p.805).

A copy of the Map of Ellicottville,N.Y. by him is in possession of Charles Northrup, Editor of the Post Newspapers in Ellicottville,N.Y. His father connected with William Richardson in town affairs in Weathersfield, and his daughter Ann married Godfrey Richardson.

He was surveyor for the Holland Land Co., surveyed town of Oxford,Chenango Co.N.Y. and several towns of Cattaraugus Co.N.Y. He was given a farm near Ellicottville, where he died and was buried in a small cemetery. Later this cemetery was plowed over and the remains were moved to Sunset Hill Cemetery, Ellicottville,N.Y. He served as Ensign in N.Y.Militia.

Richetson (spelled Rixenson) served as Ensign in Militia of Tioga Co.N.Y. under Lt.Col.Benjamin Hovey, John Fitch his father-in-law was Captain, and Solomon Dodge his brother-in-law was Ensign later.

(Ref: N.Y.Council of Appointment Vol.I p.389)

His brother Ira also served in the 1812 War in 1815, Chenango Co.Infantry. His brother Selah served in 1814 in Cortland Co.N.Y. and in 1816 as Captain.

(Ref: N.Y.Council of Appointment Vol.I p.1703).

His great granddaughter, the compiler of this manuscript, marked his grave with an 1812 N.S.D. grave marker.
